2. Identify any key findings (explanation of data findings; FCFC actions taken in response to key findings, etc.):

Trauma informed care presentations have been included in the Lake County Shared Plan since SFY2017. Since that time, numerous agencies throughout the county have been trained on trauma informed care principles. Based on previous presentations, community members provided the most amount of feedback about the definition of trauma and its subjectivity, as well as impacts. Because of this, actual trauma informed care principles might be a bit overwhelming for people to take in during a one hour training session. Follow up should be considered and more information should be provided to sites trained in different formats in order to secure a transfer of learning. The Lake County ADAMHS Board is able to provide additional resources to agencies interested in expanding trauma informed care principles.

During SFY2020, Lake County FCFC will focus its efforts on increasing trauma informed care principles to local organizations serving children including Girl and Boy Scout clubs, Before and After School Programs, Recreational Centers/Summer camps and Ministerial Associations.

The Salvation Army works collaboratively with Lake County Family and Children First Council and Lake County Department of Job and Family Services to identify necessary services for children to successfully begin the school year.

4. Identify any key findings (explanation of data findings; FCFC actions taken in response to key findings, etc.):

Lake County Family and Children First Council and Lake County Job and Family Services have been sponsoring the Back to School Bash since 2016 in collaboration with The Salvation Army. It was decided that a formal goal for the Back to School Bash be included in our Shared Plan moving forward to highlight the work of our Council as well as to strengthen community partnerships and promote this event. The data collected is for children and their families attending the Back to School Bash event at Harvey High School. Key findings include increased participation in the event each year and continued service utilization by families in our community.

The Lake County Family and Children First Council is working collaboratively with Leadership Lake County to identify middle school students and schools to participate in the David Flood presentation.

6. Identify any key findings (explanation of data findings; FCFC actions taken in response to key findings, etc.):

In October 2019 Lake County Family and Children First Council and Leadership Lake County will be bringing Youth Motivational Speaker David Flood to our community to speak to middle school students about inclusion, acceptance, respect and dignity. As a youth motivational speaker David has spoken in 36 states and Canada to over 350,000 students, inspiring them to look at people and things in a different way. His Facebook videos have received over 80 million views. He speaks with passion and conviction and through his humility, leaves his audience with so much to think about in their formative years as they move into their future.
